

On Leadership

The most dangerous leadership myth is that leaders are born—that there is a genetic factor to leadership. That's nonsense; in fact, the opposite is true. Leaders are made rather than born. —Warren Bennis यह एक खतरनाक मिथक यह है कि नेता पैदा होते हैं — कि नेतृत्व का गुण आनुवंशिक होता है. यह बकवास है; वास्तव में इसका उल्टा सही है. नेता पैदा नहीं होते; नेता बनाए जाते हैं. — वारेन बेनिस.

Leadership is lifting a person's vision to high sights, the raising of a person's performance to a higher standard, the building of a personality beyond its normal limitations. — Peter Drucker

नेतृत्व वह प्रभाव है जो व्यक्तियों की जीवनदृष्टि को ऊंचे धरातल तक ले जाता है, उनकी उपलब्धियों को ऊंचे उठने की शक्ति देता है, और उनके व्यक्तित्व को उनकी साधारण सीमाओं का अतिक्रमण कर निर्मित करता है. — पीटर ड्रुकर

A leader is one who knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way. —John Maxwell

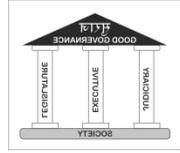

नेतृत्वकर्ता वह होता है जो जानता है किस रास्ते चलना है, जो उस रास्ते पर स्वयं चलाता है, और जो दूसरों को भी वह रास्ता दिखा पाता है — जॉन मैक्सवेल

A leader takes people where they want to go. A great leader takes people where they don't necessarily want to go, but ought to be. —Rosalynn Carter

एक नेता लोगों को वहाँ ले जाता है जहाँ वे जाना चाहते हैं. मगर एक महान नेता लोगों को वहाँ ले जाता है जहाँ उन्हें जाना चाहिए. — रोज़लिन कार्टर

Leaders think and talk about the solutions. Followers think and talk about the Problems.—Brian Tracy

एक कार्यकर्ता समस्याओं के बारे में सोचता और बातें करता है; एक नेता समाधान के बारे में. — ब्रायन ट्रेसी

Leadership Development Programme

In every sphere of national life today—be it sports, politics, education, administration, social service, religion and spirituality, armed forces or business—a great deterioration is apparent. One general reason behind this is absence of good leadership. Today, lack of good political leadership is the fundamental reason behind lack of good governance in this country.

Just a few decades back we could find many leaders of a very high order in many different fields. Scientist-leaders like Sarabhai and Bhabha enabled India to make great headways in space and nuclear sciences. It was because of the great leaders like Gandhi, Nehru, Patel, Rajgopalachari and Subhash Bose that India attained freedom and the world saw the birth of the largest democracy in the world. Business leaders like G.D. Birla, Jamshedji and J.R.D. Tata helped the Indian industry to scale towering heights. Today, however, every field is experiencing a leadership crisis. One of the reasons for this is lack of theoretical, inspirational and practical input on leadership development in the system of education of the day.

To address this gap Bharatiya Suraj Manch has evolved a leadership development programme for children and youth which it is trying to implement in schools, colleges and elsewhere on a wide scale.

A short film on leadership shown in the leadership programmes titled 'Mahatmaasmi – the Leader in Me' can be viewed at the following You-tube address — <http://youtu.be/v8kQ99Olha0>

Young social workers may also profitably participate in these leadership development programmes. Therefore, in this entire endeavour the role of voluntary organisations, which have been doing constructive work in their respective areas, will be important. These voluntary organisations can play a significant role in identifying suitable candidates for these programmes and can also join in organising the programmes at their respective locations. Such endeavours are bound to be joint endeavours.

All willing youths can participate in these programmes. Whichever field these youths go to in future, they will be able to bring good governance to the country by doing good work and providing good leadership in their respective domains. In fact, no single quality can be as useful as the quality of leadership in helping an individual rise to greatest heights in life.
